NUMBER 34

A Good Citizen Crosses Over

Last Saturday night, about 9:30 Mr. Wm. Butler, who was born and reared near Columbia, crossed the great divide, after a long illness. Had he lived until the 9th of next October he would have been eighty years old.

When the Civil war broke out he and two brothers, N. G. and Josh Butler, espoused the cause of the Union, entered the Federal army and served in the 13th regiment, Capt. O. B. Patterson's company, until hostilities ceased. He was a good soldier and also a first-class citizen, one who will not only be missed by his immediate family, but all who knew him intimately. He died with diseases incident to old age, and in his passing, for several days he slept his life out.

Some years ago he professed his faith in Christ, united with the Christian church, and was a faithful member until the summons called him from the walks of life.

In his association with his fellows, he had a warm greeting, a kind word for every one he met. We never knew of Bill Butler, as he was familiarly called, speaking unkind words of his fellowman. Honest in all dealings, with a heart full of love for the companion of his bosom and a number of devoted daughters, he passed through the veil, to await the coming of his earthly loved ones.

Besides his wife and children he leaves three brothers and two sisters to our knowledge.

May God comfort them in this hour of sorrow.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Eld. Z. T. Williams in the presence of a large circle of relatives and friends, and the interment was in the Butler graveyard.

Russell Circuit Court.

The Russell circuit court convened Monday morning, a very good crowd being in attendance. Judge Carter opened court in the forenoon, instructed the grand jury and immediately after the dinner hour that body went to work. The sheriff is up with his duties and it is believed that there will be but little delay in trying cases.

Mr. Huddleston, the State's Attorney put in an appearance, and as usual, many who had business before the court called to see him immediately after his arrival.

There are but few visiting attorneys here at this writing, but several are expected later in the week. The docket is about up to average.

The Methodist church at Campbellsville is to be enlarged and a new parsonage is either to be built or one purchased. At present the parsonage is attached to the church building, and that will be turned into Sunday-school rooms. Under the pastorate of Rev. J. S. Chandler the congregations steadily grow, the auditorium being inadequate to seat the people.

The first month of vacation is gone. The people of Columbia will be glad when the time rolls around for the fall opening, filling the town full of young men and young ladies.

Dr. B. F. Taylor has contracted with Mr. W. T. McFarland for a garage house.

Announcement.

Mr. Clarence L. Hurt, Assistant Cashier of the First National Bank, of Burnside, and Miss Haldea Rowe, of the same town, were quietly married at the home of the bride June 16th. The groom is a son of Mr. Larue Hurt, of Montpelier, and is a popular business young man. The bride was also a native of Russell county, a daughter of Mrs. Texas Rowe. Their friends in this part of the State extend their best wishes.

Mr. R. C. Blanford, who has had many years experience in newspaper work, and Mr. George W. Hancock, an attorney, have associated themselves together and will start a Republican paper at Campbellsville, the first issue to appear about the 10th of July. Mr. Blanford is a good news gatherer, and writes entertainingly, hence there is no reason why he should not get out a sheet that will give perfect satisfaction to his patrons. Mr. Hancock will be the business manager, and aside from his law practice, will look after the subscription list, make contracts for advertising, etc. We will give The Leader, which is to be the name of the paper, a cordial welcome, and will add its name to our subscription list.

All parties who owe me by note or account must settle at once. I need the money and must have it.

34-2t. Jesse Murrell.

The will of Mr. Conrad Claycomb, who died in Taylor county three weeks ago, was probated in the Taylor County Court last week. He gives everything he left to his wife during her life time and at her death the estate is to be divided equally between his children. Mr. C. E. Claycomb, of Bliss, Adair county, is one of the heirs.

Mrs. Robert Todd, of Stanford, was the guest of honor at a six o'clock dinner Wednesday evening, given by Mrs. Horace Jeffries, in her handsome home on Greensburg street. Mrs. Jeffries is a cheerful hostess and served her dinner elegantly. Those invited were Mesdames Robert Todd, Orest Hamilton, Bruce Montgomery, Allen Walker, Clyde Crenshaw; Misses Mabel Hindman and Ella Todd.

The work on the Stanford pike is progressing and those who have been over it say that a fine piece of road is being builded.

Mr. J. B. Phelps and family removed from Bakerton, Cumberland county, to this place several weeks ago. They are occupying J. E. Flowers' residence on Greensburg street.

Giving the Housewife More than She Demands.

During these days of the high cost of living the shrewd housewife demands her money's worth in all the food she buys. To demand it is one thing, but to actually receive it is another.

You have a way of detecting short measure, but how do you know you are not receiving inferior quality?

In purchasing foodstuffs how do you determine whether or not you are receiving your full money's worth? Do you buy a certain brand because your mother or grandmother always used it? Science has improved foodstuffs like everything else. If you use a certain brand because it has proven "satisfactory to you" how can you be sure that you are getting the best, keeping abreast with the times, getting the latest improvements?

In deciding upon different brands of foodstuffs there is only one way to prove which gives the fullest value at any price, and that one way is results—that which proves "Best by Test."

A few manufacturers of food products guarantee to refund your money if their brands do not prove best. Such firms and their products should be patronized. Among these are the makers of Calumet Baking Powder.

The Battle Cry of Peace.

Mr. Edgar Reed, Manager of the Paramount Theatre, is making arrangements to take care of what is expected to be the largest crowd that ever attended a photo-play in Columbia on July 1st, at the showing of the "Battle Cry of Peace," the world's greatest photo spectacle. Preparedness is the basis of the story, a question on which the greatest men of our nation agree.

"The Battle Cry of Peace" is said to be just as much a dramatic story as a war-time spectacle. The story is described as a happy and forceful combination of romance and tragedy with a liberal sprinkling of comedy and gaiety.

Among the principals in the cast are: Chas. Richmond, W. J. Ferguson, said to be the only surviving member of the company which played in Ford's theatre the night Lincoln was assassinated, and Thias Lawton, the Louisville actress, who is cast as "Columbia." Former President, Roosevelt, Secretary of War Garrison, Admiral Dewey, and other notables appear in this picture.

This picture will be exhibited in the afternoon and night, July 1st.

People from out of town should not overlook the opportunity of seeing this show in the afternoon.

Brick for Sale.

I have several thousand hard brick for sale at $1.00 per hundred.

Sullivan, of Russell county, who was convicted upon the charge of being implicated in the removal of indictments from the circuit clerk's office, Jamestown, and his sentence fixed at from two to ten years in the penitentiary, writes The News a letter, claiming that he had been wrongfully convicted. His letter is so worded that precludes the publication of it. He calls upon every reader of the News, who believes in justice, to write Gov. Stanley, asking for his pardon.

The News-Journal announces that the small-pox scare at Campbellsville is over. For the last two months cases have been developing mostly in the colored settlement, but at this time there is only one case in the corporate limits, and that is about well.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Triplett, this place, on last Wednesday celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. A bountiful dinner was spread which was highly enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Triplett are in reasonably good health, and their friends trust that they may live until many more anniversaries roll around.

To Our Patrons in Adair County.

We have something like twelve hundred subscribers in Adair county, and it is not often that a home man is asked to pay his subscription, but the time has come when we must deviate from that rule. We need every dollar that is due the office, and nine men out of every ten have a good idea how his account stands. We believe every one who is behind intends to pay, and many of them can pay as well one day as another. They are all good patrons, but a large percent of them have become neglectful, feeling that we do not need ready cash to run the business. In that they are mistaken. Just now we are compelled to pay 100 per cent. more for blank paper than any other time since the News was started, eighteen years ago. Just think. A ton of paper, laid down at our door, costs $90.00, and the ton lasting only seven weeks. Do you not think we need money?

Every man, woman and child should see "The Battle Cry of Peace" Saturday, July 1st, afternoon and night.

Mr. Bram Scott, who lived in the mill district, a son of Mr. Isham Scott, died last Saturday night. He had been sick for many months. He leaves a wife and one child. During his illness he was kindly administered unto, but his disease baffled the skill of physicians. He was buried Monday morning in the presence of relatives and friends.

Press Huddleston, a young man who lives near Crocus, was arrested last Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Nat Walker, brought to Columbia, charged with shooting at Mrs. Fannie Aaron, who also lives near Crocus. He denies the charge, and gave bond in the sum of $350 for a future trial.

Albert Gasser, Pete McCaule and E. C. Beard, who live in the eastern section of the county, are charged with confederating together for the purpose of intimidating Cris Burton. The two former have been arrested and bonded, the latter not yet apprehended.

Miss Leonora Lowe, second daughter of Mr. J. D. Lowe, who is a very efficient young lady, is filling Miss Mae Stult's place in the First National Bank, during the latter's illness.

Mothers who love your sons and daughters, see "The Battle Cry of Peace," Saturday, July 1st afternoon and night.

In giving the number of illiterates in Adair county, last week, the figures made us say 9,251 when the statement should have been 921.

H. A. Walker sold to the agent of Harry Lazarus, Bowling Green, six mules, last week, ranging in price from $105 to $165.

Judgment Affirmed.

It will be remembered that at the last term of the Russell circuit court Silas A. Sullivan was tried and convicted for being implicated in removing indictments from the circuit clerk's office of said county. He was given an indeterminate sentence from two to ten years. The case was appealed, and last week the Court of Appeals affirmed the judgment of the lower court.

To the many friends and neighbors who showed so much interest and gave so freely their services in the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father we tender our sincere thanks and appreciation. It is a great heritage to live or to die in such a community.

Mrs. Matilda Butler and daughters.

News has just been received that Mrs. Henry Hudson, who was operated on for appendicitis in Jacksonville, Ill., last week, is doing well and her recovery is expected in due course of time. Earlier messages indicated but little hope and her many relatives and friends here are gratified with the latest information.

See Theodore Roosevelt, former Sec'y. of War Garrison and Admiral Dewey in "The Battle Cry of Peace."

Mr. Walter Elrod met with a painful accident last Tuesday. He was standing on a log at Sandusky's mill, talking to some gentlemen. The log turned, throwing him to the ground, dislocating his right shoulder. It was reduced by Dr. Cartwright and Mr. Elrod will be himself in a few days.

If you want to go to Campbellsville Sunday take a Myers car. $1.50 for round trip.

Some Adair County farmers say that their wheat has been damaged by wet weather.
